Rockwell Automation and Aquitas Solutions Partner to Streamline IoT Projects for Customers

Company to bring smart manufacturing solutions into their Connected Maintenance portfolio

April 19, 2022

ROSWELL, Ga. – Aquitas Solutions, a leading provider of Enterprise Asset Management (EAM) and IoT solutions that optimize asset intensive industries, announced today that they will be joining the Rockwell Automation System Integrator Program. Rockwell Automation, Inc. (NYSE: ROK) is the world’s largest company dedicated to industrial automation and digital transformation.

“We are thrilled to have Aquitas Solutions join the Rockwell Automation System Integrator Partner Program,” said Darin Harbor, Director of North America System Integrator Partners at Rockwell Automation. “Our PartnerNetwork™ is made up of an ecosystem of best-in-class partners, and Aquitas Solutions will bring the ability to help companies reduce their maintenance spend by creating condition-based maintenance solutions on top of their existing CMMS solution and ultimately help our mutual customers increase their competitiveness in the market and advance their success.”

As an expert in implementing Maximo, Aquitas is uniquely positioned as a strong resource for clients ready to embark on a smart maintenance journey and build efficient processes around their existing EAM infrastructure. Aquitas brings 20+ years of EAM experience to this partnership to offer a realistic, joint selling approach to clients across all industries – regardless of their digital transformation knowledge and readiness.

“Aqutas is excited to join the Rockwell Automation partner ecosystem. Rockwell is the market leader in the industrial automation space with a footprint in the majority of our customers,” commented Ray Miciek, Partner at Aquitas Solutions. “Our aim is to leverage Rockwell’s digital transformation software suite (FactoryTalk powered by PTC) and extend that capability to optimize our customer’s maintenance operations. It aligns perfectly with our ‘Connected Maintenance’ solutions.”

Through the combined efforts of Rockwell and Aquitas, customers will be able to gain greater visibility into their data, improve reporting around assets and operations, and reallocate labor.
